STATEMENT FROM MAYOR RAHM EMANUEL ON THE HOUSE REPUBLICAN TAX PLAN

“The Republicans’ plan to give tax breaks to corporations and the wealthy at the expense of many hardworking American families, students and seniors is a bad deal for Chicago and bad policy for the country. Congress should lower taxes for middle-class Chicagoans, not raise them. The bill that passed the House today is wrong for Chicago families, harmful to Illinois taxpayers and will weaken the ability of cities across the country to invest in infrastructure, education and economic development.”
